

TREVOR COTE

VARSITY ASSISTANT

Coach Trevor Cote is in his first year as a Varsity Assistant at AHS. He previously coached boys soccer for the U-9 Colorado Fusion and U15-16 soccer teams on the East Coast.

Trevor was born in Portsmouth, Rhode Island, where he attended Providence Country Day. He was a three sport varsity athlete in soccer, basketball, and tennis. He went on to play varsity soccer at Wheaton College in Massachusetts, capping his senior year as captain and earning an All-New England NSCAA award. He was also a three-time All Conference soccer player in the NEWMAC. His undergraduate degree is in Psychology.

Trevor now is pursuing his graduate degree in Sports and Performance Psychology at the University of Denver.

Coach Cote's family consists of his mom and dad, Joyce and Norman, and his brother, Chris, and sister, Jillian.